

What are children seeing in school and in their world?

There is no risk of illness, death, and spreading. Mandates and lockdowns punished children; rewarded teachers; and, had no scientific justification. Schools have become a Toxic Place for Children. They have continuously increased the “rise in rates of childhood and adolescent anxiety, depression, and suicide”. Here’s a snapshot of what our kids are experiencing...