

We'll “stay out of the weeds” and not present the average expenditures for Education Agencies. They are complicated to calculate and require manuals.

It's worth noting: State Superintendents serve about 2-years; and, District Superintendents 5-years. (A 25% vacancy rate is caused by the progressive culture.)

The reformed structure of the Citizen Controlled Education system does not depend on a Board of Education, or other authority, to control schools.

School Boards are gone.

Schools run as businesses operating as Corporations.

The layers of Bureaucratic waste and corruption are replaced by a Citizen Board, Commissioners, Commission Offices, and Alliance Chapters where student and parents rights are respected.
